WHAT THE NEW EU RULES ON FDI BRING?

INTERVIEW

In October 2020, the EU adopted new rules on foreign direct investment. The reason for the new regulation, according to the European Commission, is in fact concerns about investors from third countries, closely linked to their domestic governments, who take over European companies with key technologies for strategic reasons, and doubts that EU investors often do not enjoy the same investment rights in the investors' origin country... ## FIC REQUESTED A STATEMENT FROM THE FBiH GOVERNMENT DUE TO OMISSIONS IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PUBLIC CALL FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO EXPORT COMPANIES

At the end of December, the Foreign Investors Council in BiH requested a statement from the FBiH Government and the Federal Ministry of Energy, Mining and Industry regarding the omissions made in the implementation of the Public Call for financial assistance to export companies from the industrial sector. By disputed Public Call, some FIC members, which are in foreign ownership, were rejected in the request to participate in the distribution of funds to help the economy, since their directors are foreign citizens and do not have a BiH ID card. This attitude of the authorities put these companies into an unequal and discriminatory position. At a time when the Public Call was in progress, FIC addressed Federal Ministry of Energy, Mining and Industry on shortcomings related to the prescribed... READ MORE
